

Europa Star Brand Specials

Via its magazines and websites, Europa Star is influential in the decision-making process of the industry's leaders, key distributors, top retailers, agents and knowledgeable consumers worldwide.

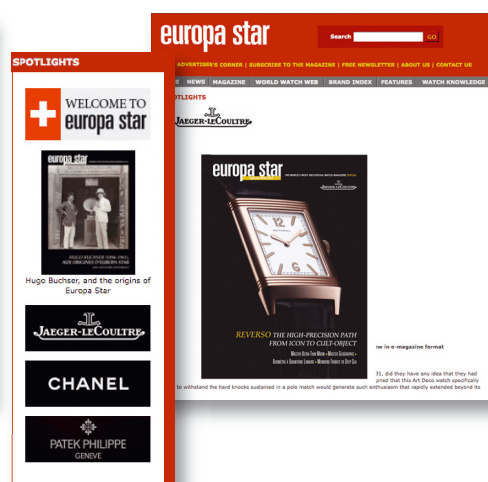

Take advantage of the unparalleled Europa Star network for producing and distributing a Brand Special personally to the world's leading names in watch retailing and distribution. Our highly experienced editorial department can work with you to produce a special insert with engaging content about your brand, its history and its products. A professional lay-out by our skilled in-house graphic design team will meet your exacting requirements and fit perfectly with the high quality of our publications.

We can produce Brand Specials in various languages and package them separately for bundled distribution with one or more of our international titles. We can also organise a separate print-run for your own requirements and publish your Brand Special on-line on our websites in four different languages.

Europa Star's one-stop shop, combining expertly written content, professional design and unparalleled geographic distribution, offers one of the most efficient ways for your brand to make a global impact on the world markets.
